

Inset day member presentation

We'll be hosting several member presentations across dates in September which will be beneficial for your staff to take part in.

The sessions will cover a wide range of useful topics such as: benefits of being a member of the Scheme, changes to the Scheme and contributions - just to name a few.

There's two ways to register, either on behalf of your school, or your staff can register themselves.

HEADLINES

Free employer training

Each month, we offer an extensive range of training for employers to get involved in - the best part is they're free.

Our experienced Stakeholder team host weekly sessions throughout each month focusing on different aspects of the Scheme. Although we take a short break in August due to school summer holidays, there's still time to make the most of training in July.

Updated resources

Recently we've updated a few resources on our website that'll help answer member queries. We appreciate that the Teachers' Pension Scheme is quite complex to understand, and the changes brought in by Transitional Protection have added to this.

Our updated resources will assist you in the approach to a very busy time with member retirement applications, so we highly recommend you familiarise yourself with them.

The sessions will take place at 2pm for approximately an hour on 20 July, 17 August and 20 September. Spaces are limited to 40 for each to allow all questions to be covered.

MCR mid-month updates and corrections

We've received an increase in the number of queries from employers asking about making warning error corrections and service and salary updates mid-month, outside of their monthly MCR submission.

We've created some instructions to help you with how to provide this information. It's important that this method is used when no contribution adjustments are required. If you do have contribution adjustments, you'll need to make this change in your payroll first, and then in your next monthly MCR submission.

MDC concurrent calculation validation enhancement

We've recently made some enhancements to our validation processes. This is to ensure that you're providing information correctly for members in concurrent employment that have worked hours that are equivalent to a full-time employment for the service period.

Please review this guidance to ensure you continue to provide this correctly, and the error you'll receive if you don't.

OTHER ITEMS

Teachers' Retirement Agency

We'd like to remind you that if you've recently been contacted by the Teachers' Retirement Agency who provide workshops to teachers approaching retirement but at a cost to the member, these are not being delivered by us.

They're not our events, the only member presentations we currently offer are free monthly live online training sessions and are delivered by one of our Employer Relationship Managers.

You can book a member presentation on our website.
