Transitional Protection – what to expect

from 1 April 2022

With only six months until we see changes introduced, it's important to understand what the Scheme will look like from April 2022 and what you need to be aware of.

This includes the closure of the final salary scheme from 31 March 2022.

Join our Employer drop-in session

We now have openings for our October drop-in session, featuring a workshop on Monthly Contributions Reconciliation. For more information, take a look at our news article online.

Member presentations

After the popularity and success of our initial member presentations at the beginning of September, we're pleased to announce that we'll be holding these once a month going forward.

The events will cover a variety of subjects aimed at educating members about the benefits of the Scheme, their options and give them the tools to manage their pension.

OTHER ITEMS

Using the correct Data Centre

When submitting your monthly data on the Employer Portal, please ensure that you're using the correct Data Centre for each establishment that you manage.

We cannot accept files for establishments if they're submitted through another establishment's Data Centre and it will be seen as a data breach.

Contributions testing

As part of the 2021/22 audit of the Scheme, our auditor Deloitte will be approaching a small selection of employers and payroll providers to ask for information.
