

Making life easier with My Pension Online

Dear colleague

You recently received an email telling you the benefits of registering for a My Pension Online account, to keep up to date as a member of the Teachers' Pension Scheme.

940,000 members are registered for My Pension Online, because it's the easiest and most secure way of managing your pension.

Once you register you can:

- Update your personal details anytime online
- View your Benefit Statement - this is the only place you can view this
- Nominate beneficiaries
- Complete important forms and documents

By registering it also means that Teachers' Pensions can contact you directly with important updates and changes that may affect your pension.

All you need to register is:

- a) A few personal details
- b) Your National Insurance number
- c) Your email address - we recommend a personal email address
