

Transitional Protection online resources

It's important you understand Transitional Protection, why changes are being introduced and if you're affected by the changes.

To help you understand if you're affected, we've developed a decision tree, which asks you a series of simple questions about your pension and teaching career and then provides you with the relevant information based on your answers.

Multi Factor Authentication (MFA) making online accounts even safer

As part of our commitment to make our users' online experience safer, faster, and more efficient we implemented MFA last year. MFA refers to an additional layer of security over a static PIN and enhances the safety of our online portal - My Pension Online.

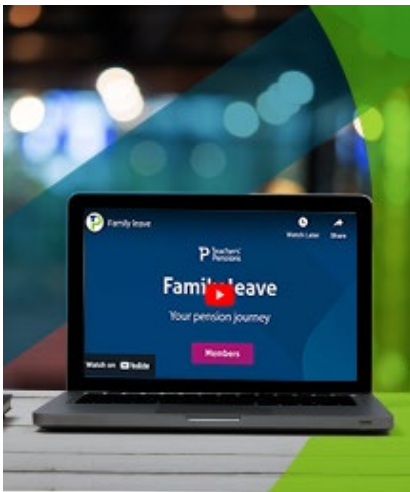

Signing up for My Pension Online means you can check and manage your teacher's pension at a time that's convenient to you. It's easy to sign up.

All you need is:

- Your personal details
- Your National Insurance number
- An email address - we recommend a personal one, so you don't lose access to your account.

When signing up for My Pension Online and MFA we recommend you use an Authenticator App as it offers the highest levels of account protection.

New resources

Even though you've opted out of the Scheme it's important to keep up to date with the latest resources.

We've created brand new short and simplified videos on our website covering topics such as opting in, death benefits and more.

The aim of these videos is to help you understand our processes and support you through your pension journey.

Need help with financial wellbeing?

By opting out of the Scheme you're not only missing out on your pension but you're also losing important benefits.

Make sure you understand the value of your pension by registering for My Pension Online. We also have a range of online resources to help with your financial planning.

Unfortunately, we can't provide financial advice, but MoneyHelper gives you free, impartial help for all your money and pension choices.

Don't forget to update your details.

Just moved house? Got married? If so, don't forget to update your details. Being a deferred member still means you need to keep up to date with your pension.

The easiest way to check and update your personal details is online via My Pension Online.
