THINKING ABOUT RETIREMENT

It's good to know that your teacher's pension will be there for you when you're ready to retire. As a Defined Benefits Scheme you can have peace of mind knowing your pension income is guaranteed.

You can take your teacher's pension from the age of 55* or you can wait until your Normal Pension Age.

Why not take a look at our video which walks you through the retirement process?

For more information about retirement planning check out the resources on our website.

* your pension would be abated to reflect the fact that it's in payment for longer.

MORE WAYS TO GET IN TOUCH

Struggling to find an answer to your question? We've launched web chat to help.

It'll provide you with an opportunity to contact us about your pension and to seek further information about the Scheme. At the moment we won't be able to discuss your personal details over webchat. If you do have a query which requires you to provide your security information, please continue to use My Pension Online or the Contact Centre to get in touch.

The service will be open from 9am – 4.30pm, Monday to Friday.
