

Are you making the most of flexibilities?

Teachers' Pensions provides a number of opportunities for you to increase your benefits.

But are you making the most of what's on offer?
It's all about making things more flexible for yourself in the long term and looking after the future you.

Flexibilities can be made up of:

Additional Pension

Faster Accrual

Buy out

What you can pay in will depend on whether you're in the final salary or career average arrangement.

The best way to apply for flexibilities is to register for My Pension Online, which will enable you to access the Flexibility Election Form.
