Training

To help you understand more about the scheme, and the roles and responsibilities that you have as an employer, we provide a variety of free training courses throughout the year.

With our webinars happening weekly and our employer drop-in sessions taking place monthly we aim to have training that is accessible to everyone who administers the Teachers' Pension Scheme.

If you're new to the scheme or have a specific question you'd like answering you can get in touch with our dedicated employer support team who can help guide you.

Find more information and dates of our training in the pages below.
