Submission of Contributions and Monthly Breakdown forms

It's acknowledged that employers who use the service of payroll providers tend to change contractors in April and therefore may experience some 'bedding in' issues.

During May we've received the majority of contributions but in a number of cases the associated paperwork has not been submitted. The contribution breakdown form is an important piece of information and if not received we're unable to account for the contributions in accordance with HM Treasury's requirements. We'd be grateful for employers who are aware of any missing breakdown forms to submit these as soon as possible.
