Changes to My Pension Online

It's vital you keep up to date with your pension, therefore since 4 July you're now asked to confirm your personal details when you first log in to My Pension Online (MPO) and annually thereafter. This is to ensure your details are accurate.

It's also good practice to ensure you update your details via your employer so that their records are also current. We've had some occasions where members have updated their details via My Pension Online but haven't informed their employer, the employer then submits out of date information resulting in the member's personal details reverting back to the old version.

Using MPO also means you'll be able to review your nomination forms to ensure your loved ones are looked after should the worst happen.

Coming soon - We're working on some changes to the design and functionality of My Pension Online, which will be rolled out later this year! We'll update you closer to the time but we'll be contacting members to ask for their opinions.
