Changes to the State Pension Age

You may have read about the recent changes to the State Pension Age that affects members aged between 39 and 47. The change means that the State Pension Age will rise from 67 to 68 for these members and that their Normal Pension Age in the Career Average arrangement will increase in line with their State Pension Age.

Please note that this is currently subject to consultation and parliamentary approval. As soon as we've more information, we'll update you.
