Member Print changes

To further improve the security and privacy of member data, we're making changes to the Member Search and Member Print functionality within the Employer Portal.

These changes are being made to ensure that we remain compliant with UK General Data Protection Regulations (UK GDPR).

Find out more about the information you'll now have access to on our website.

Government consultation published seeking views

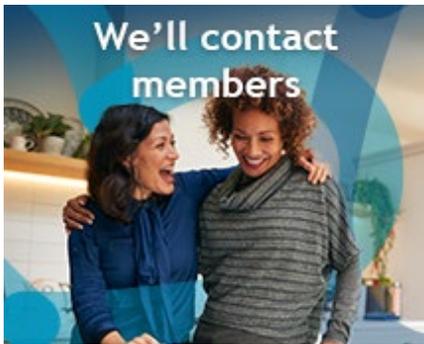

The Department for Education has launched two consultations seeking views on the methodology used to determine the Discount Rate and proposed changes to the Cost Control mechanism.

Following the consultations, the government will consider the feedback and then publish its response later this year.
